The Tenant must indemnify the Landlord against any liability incurred by the Landlord to any third party whose property is sold by him in the mistaken belief held in good faith--which is to be presumed unless the contrary is proved--that the property belonged to the Tenant. If, having made reasonable efforts to do so, the Landlord is unable to locate the Tenant, then the Landlord may retain the proceeds of sale absolutely unless the Tenant claims them within 6 months of the date upon which it vacated the Premises. SCHEDULE 3: THE RENT AND RENT REVIEW

1.1 Agreement of the Rent

Six months before each review date, time not being of the essence of the contract, the Landlord and the Tenant must explore the possibility of open negotiations with a view to reaching a written agreement as to the Rent for the following review period and the Rent for that period may be agreed at any time or, in the absence of agreement, is to be determined in accordance with this Schedule 3

1.2 The Rent

Until the First Review Date the Rent is to be the Initial Rent and thereafter during each successive review period the Rent is to be a sum equal to the greater of (1) the Rent payable under this Lease immediately before the relevant review date or (2) the revised Rent ascertained in accordance with paragraph 2 this schedule or (3) the revised Rent ascertained in accordance with paragraph 3 this schedule.

1.3 Memoranda of agreement

Whenever the Rent has been ascertained in accordance with this schedule, memoranda to that effect must be signed by or on behalf of the Landlord and the Tenant and annexed to this document and its counterpart. The Landlord and the Tenant must bear their own costs in this respect.

1.4 Where the Rent is not ascertained by a review date

If the Rent payable during any review period has not been ascertained by the relevant review date, then rent is to continue to be payable at the rate previously payable, such payments being on account of the Rent for that review period.

1.5 Where a review date is not a quarter day

If the Rent for any review period is ascertained on or before the relevant review date but that date is not a quarter day, then the Tenant must pay to the Landlord on that review date the difference between the Rent due for that quarter and the Rent already paid for it.

1.6 Back-payment where review delayed

If the Rent payable during any review period has not been ascertained by the relevant review date, then the Tenant must pay to the Landlord, within 7 days of the date on which the Rent is agreed or ascertained, any shortfall between the Rent that would have been paid for that period had it been ascertained on or before the relevant review date and the payments made by the Tenant on account and any VAT payable thereon, and interest, at the base lending rate from time to time of the bank referred to in or nominated pursuant to clause 1.19, in respect of each instalment of rent due on or after that review date on the amount by which the instalment of the Rent that would have been paid had it been ascertained exceeds the amount paid by the Tenant on account, the interest to be payable for the period from the date on which the instalment was due up to the date of payment of the shortfall.

1.7 Effect of counter-inflation provisions

If at any review date a statute prevents, restricts or modifies the Landlord's right either to review the Rent in accordance with this Lease or to recover any increase in the Rent, then the Landlord may, when the restriction or modification is removed, relaxed or varied--without prejudice to his rights, if any, to recover any rent the payment of which has only been deferred by statute--on giving not less than 1 month's nor more than 3 months' notice to the Tenant at any time within 6 months of the restriction or modification being removed, relaxed or varied, time being of the essence, require the Tenant to proceed with any review of the Rent that has been prevented or to review the Rent further where the Landlord's right was restricted or modified. The date of expiry of the notice is to be treated as a review date--provided that nothing in this paragraph is to be construed as varying any subsequent review date. The Landlord may recover any increase in the Rent with effect from the earliest date permitted by law.

2.1 Definitions

For all purposes of this schedule the terms defined in this paragraph 3.2 have the meanings specified.

2.2 'The Base Figure'

'The Base Figure' means 257.5.

2.5 Ascertaining the Rent

2.6 Determination of the revised Rent

The Rent for any review period is to be determined at the relevant review date by multiplying the Initial Rent by the Index for the month preceding the relevant review date and dividing the result by the Base Figure.

2.7 Changes in the Index

If the reference base used to compile the Index changes after the date of this Lease, the figure taken to be shown in the Index after the change is to be the figure that would have been shown in the Index if the reference base current at the date of this Lease had been retained.

2.8 Arbitration of problems

If it becomes impossible to calculate the Rent for any Review Period by reference to the Index because of any change in the methods used to compile the Index after the date of this Lease or for any other reason whatever, or if any dispute or question whatever arises between the parties as to the amount of the Rent for any review period or the construction or effect of this schedule, then the Rent for that review period or the disputed matter is to be determined by an arbitrator to be appointed either by agreement between the parties or, in the absence of agreement, by the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, or any person authorised by him to make appointments on his behalf, on the application of either the Landlord or the Tenant. This is to be deemed to be a submission to arbitration within the meaning of the Arbitration Act 1996. The arbitrator is to have full power to determine, on such dates as he considers appropriate, what the increase in the Index would have been had it continued on the basis assumed for the operation of this rent review and in view of the information assumed to be available for it. If that determination is also impossible, the arbitrator must determine a reasonable rent for the Premises on such dates as he considers appropriate, having regard to the purposes and intent of the provisions in this Lease for the review of the Rent.

2.9 Memoranda of the Rent payable

Whenever the Rent has been ascertained in accordance with this schedule, memoranda to that effect must be signed by or on behalf of the Landlord and the Tenant and annexed to this document and its counterpart. The Landlord and the Tenant must bear their own costs in this respect.

3.2.2 the assumption that if the Premises have been destroyed or damaged they have been fully rebuilt or reinstated;

3.2.3 the assumption that the covenants contained in this Lease on the part of the Tenant have been fully performed and observed;

3.2.4 the assumption that the Premises are available to let by a willing landlord to a willing tenant in the open market by one lease ('the Hypothetical Lease') without a premium being paid by either party and with vacant possession;

3.2.5 the assumption that the Premises have already been fitted out and equipped by and at the expense of the incoming tenant so that they are capable of being used by the incoming tenant from the beginning of the Hypothetical Lease for all purposes required by the incoming tenant that would be permitted under this Lease;

3.2.6 the assumption that the Hypothetical Lease contains the same terms as this Lease, except the amount of the Initial Rent and any rent-free period allowed to the Tenant for fitting out the Premises for his occupation and use at the commencement of the Term, but including the provisions for rent review on the Review Dates, and except as set out in paragraph 3.2.7;

3.2.7 the assumption that the term of the Hypothetical Lease is equal in length to the Contractual Term and that such term begins on the relevant review date, that the rent commences to be payable on that date and that the years during which the tenant covenants to decorate the Premises are at the same intervals after the beginning of the term of the Hypothetical Lease as those specified in this Lease;

3.2.8 the assumption that the Hypothetical Lease will be renewed at the expiry of its term under the provisions of the 1954 Act; and

3.2.9 the assumption that every prospective willing landlord and willing tenant is able to recover VAT in full.

3.3 'The Disregards'

'The Disregards' means:

3.3.1 disregard of any effect on rent of the fact that the Tenant, his subtenants, or their predecessors in title or any lawful occupier have been in occupation of the Premises;

3.3.2 disregard of any goodwill attached to the Premises because the business of the Tenant, his subtenants, or their predecessors in title in their respective businesses is or was carried on there; and

3.3.3 disregard of any increase in rental value of the Premises attributable at the relevant review date to any improvement to the Premises carried out, with consent where required, otherwise than in pursuance of an obligation except an obligation contained in clause 3.7 to the Landlord or his predecessors in title either:

3.3.3.1 by the Tenant, his subtenants, or their predecessors in title or any lawful occupier during the Term or during any period of occupation before the Term; or

3.3.3.2 by any tenant or subtenant of the Premises or any lawful occupiers before the commencement of the Term, provided that the Landlord or his predecessors in title have not since the improvement was carried out had vacant possession of the relevant part of the Premises; and

3.4 'An expert'

3.7.2 Conduct of the determination

3.7.2.1 Fees and expenses

The fees and expenses of an expert and any VAT payable on them, including the cost of his appointment, are to be borne equally by the Landlord and the Tenant, who must otherwise each bear their own costs.

3.7.2.3 Representations

An expert must afford each of the parties an opportunity to make written representations to him and also an opportunity to make written counter-representations on any representations made to him by the other party but is not to be in any way limited or fettered by such representations and counter-representations and is to be entitled to rely on his own judgment and opinion.

3.7.2.4 Replacement of an expert

If an expert dies or refuses to act or becomes incapable of acting or if he fails to publish his determination within 4 months of the date on which he accepted the appointment, either party may apply to the President to discharge him and appoint another in his place.

3.7.3 Reimbursement of costs

If, on publication of an expert's determination, the Landlord or the Tenant pays all his fees and expenses, the paying party may, in default of payment within 21 days of a demand to that effect, recover half of them from the other party in the case of the Landlord as rent arrears or in the case of the Tenant by deduction from the Rent.
